

great men, the viewers had a better understanding of their brilliant performance in building and developing the powerful defence industry of the country.

Diplomatic envoys and military attachés were also greatly impressed to see the military equipment that reliably guarantees the invincible military capability of socialist Korea.

The exhibition house will contribute to adding glory to the great Songun revolutionary exploits of the great leaders, help the service personnel and people to be well aware of the history of military buildup of the Workers' Party of Korea and encourage them to work harder for the building of a thriving socialist country.
