

Kim Yong Ju

Current Position: Vice Chair, Presidium, SPA
Member, Political Bureau (PolitBuro), CCKWP; member, CCKWP

Born: 1920 (Mangyongdae, Taesong County, South Phyongan; Pyongyang)

Mr. Kim is the youngest brother of the late DPRK President Kim il Sung, the son of Kim Hyong Jik and Kang Pan Sok

Education:

baccalaureate, Politics and Economy, Moscow State University
Moscow School for Higher Party Officials

Positions held:

1954: Cadre, Organization and Guidance Department, CCKWP

1957: Vice Director, Organization and Guidance Department, CCKWP

1960: (October) Appointed, Director, Organization and Guidance Department, CCKWP

1961: (September) Member, CCKWP

1962: (October) Delegate, 3rd Delegate

1966: (October) Appointed, Secretary and Alternate Member, Political Bureau (PolitBuro), CCKWP

1967: (November) Presidium Member and Delegate, 4th SPA

1969: (December) Secretary, CCKWP

1970: (November) Elected, Secretary and Member, Political Bureau (PolitBuro), CCKWP

1972: (November) Co-Chair, Joint North-South Coordinating Committee
(December) Delegate, 5th SPA
Appointed, Member, Central People's Committee

1974: (February) Deputy Prime Minister, State Administration Council

1993: (December) Vice President, DPRK

1994: (July) Member, Kim il Sung Funeral Committee

1995: (February) Member, O Jin U Funeral Committee

1998: (September) Vice Chair, Presidium and Delegate, SPA (representing 70th Electoral District)

2003: (September) Vice Chair, Presidium and Member, 11th SPA

2009: (March) Elected, Delegate, 12th SPA